I Say Unto You Volume I: Talks on the Sayings of Jesus Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh

The Jesus of these discourses is a revolutionary of the soul. He calls for freedom from tradition and conditioning that each man may reclaim his birthright and become, as Jesus did, an 'only begotten son of God'. That God has made each person a totally unique individual is a truth that is obscured and then forgotten until once again God's love pours down and is made manifest in the enlightenment of yet another man-become-God. Bhagwan spoke to us of Jesus with a wistful and heartbreaking sadness 'you are missing me too...' and a joy which had nothing to do with anything that any of us could understand. But it was felt. And loved. "You will recognize me because you are tasting with me. You are part of the feast that I am. You are celebrating with me. The more you taste, the more you will know that what I am saying is exactly what Jesus said, or Buddha said, or Krishna said. But first you will have to taste me, then that recognition will come..." Partake of Bhagwan with infinite love, and with awareness... --- from book's dustjacket
