Mother's Day. It comes but once a year, and is replete with demonstrations of love and appreciation for the woman who does it all. But when the demands of everyday life overshadow this annual show of appreciation, it can be all too easy for women to succumb to feelings of frustration and discouragement. Bestselling author Toni Sorenson shares her insights on the infinite value of mothers in a reassuring message to women everywhere: "Inherent in you are the traits of the divine." "Nothing in the home can replace you."
