Irish Americans: The History and Culture of a People: The History and Culture of a People

Virtually every aspect of American culture has been influenced by Irish immigrants and their descendants. This encyclopedia tells the full story of the Irish-American experience, covering immigration, assimilation, and achievement.

- Demonstrates the intricate—and far-reaching—nature of the Irish-American connection
- Covers the variety of the Irish-American political experience in the North and South rather than focusing only on northern populations
- Distinguishes between the experience of Irish Protestants and Irish Catholics
- Highlights the Irish propensity for inventiveness in America and Irish contributions to business and technology
- Discusses the prominence of the Irish in the Catholic Church in the United States
