Tourists and Travel: 62 (Issues Today) Lisa Firth

Despite a global recession, research shows that a large percentage of Brits are still determined to go on holiday next year. However, the locations tourists choose to visit, and the types of holidays they take, are changing. Travellers are becoming more adventurous, often seeking 'authentic' experiences in the countries they visit. This has led to a growing concern for tourism to remain sustainable and eco-friendly. Tourists and Travel explores why tourism is important to the UK, the issues surrounding responsible travel and the effect that tourism can have on local communities.
