Treasures in My Garden: A Mother's Inspirations from the Father Charlene Warren

This is a collection of inspirational writings by the author over the last twelve to fifteen years. Many of the poems and essays were divinely inspired while meditating on the Lord.

With keen insight, the author portrays the divine character qualities of those most dear to her. Intertwined in her thought-provoking work is seen a love for her heavenly Father, family, and nature and creation.

The author shares her journey into a greater awareness and appreciation for God's magnificent creation.

Becoming fond of observing God's nature and the growth of plant life, she produces some of her literary writings from a gardening aspect.

The book is light-hearted at times, yet it suggests and encourages deeper spiritual growth for the individual.
