Berrien County (Postcard History Series) Sherry Arent Cawley

As one of the earliest developed areas of the state of Michigan, Berrien County has a rich history that appeals to the locals as well as the tourists who still enjoy the many treasures to be found there. Author Sherry Arent Cawley has compiled over 200 vintage postcards chronicling the life and times of this historic area.

The historic Benton Harbor Fruit Market, Silver Beach, the mineral baths at the Whitecomb Hotel, and the House of David are all featured here in vivid postcards, some never before published, with accompanying captions. Images of Grand Beach, Niles, New Buffalo, Paw Paw Lake, and Berrien Springs offer readers a nostalgic glimpse into a Berrien County of yesteryear.

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Berrien County (Postcard History Series) can make you really feel more interested to read.
