From the lowly runways of Presque Isle, Maine to the lofty height of the Empire State Building Ruthe Butler Bantle

As the days dwindle down to a precious few, I find myself thinking more and more about the past, about how much I have accomplished and how much I haven't. Thinking that a girl from a small town in the deep woods of Maine could accomplish so much, out there in the big wide world, amazes me. So, taking pen in hand, I have decided to put my story in black and white to share with family and friends.
