Making Rain: a memoir of drag, big hair and covens Fred Gorski

Making Rain is a memoir of life on the edge of society. Fred Gorski was born into a bohemian community on the outskirts of New York City and developed into a free thinker, cross-dresser, bartender, pagan, and B&D mistress. The story follows him through a bizarre landscape of odd encounters, from mob characters and cross dressing cops to the sorrows of the AIDS crisis. Through it all he retains his dignity and celebrates all that is healthy in life.
