O Instituto Israelita de Ensino e Pesquisa Albert Einstein oferece cursos de especialização lato sensu para diversas áreas da medicina, biomedicina, enfermagem, farmácia, fisioterapia, psicologia, entre outras, ampliando o diferencial competitivo do Hospital no quadro das instituições de saúde de vanguarda no Brasil e no exterior.

A série de Manuais de Especialização Einstein, destinada a graduandos e pós-graduandos, traz a experiência acumulada de profissionais e especialistas das diferentes áreas, interfaces e disciplinas que compõem os cursos de especialização e de instituições renomadas no país.

O décimo segundo manual – Medicina Integrativa – começa pela abordagem da interface da Medicina Integrativa com a atenção primária, com os processos imunológico e inflamatório, segue pelas bases científicas e conceitos de epigenética e conexão mente-corpo. A seguir, concentra-se na importância terapêutica do placebo, espiritualidade e religião e finaliza com a interdisciplinaridade e cuidado humano, trazendo uma grande contribuição, de forma integral, personalizada e holística, da integração do atendimento clínico, educação e pesquisa dentro do contexto hospitalar.

Esta obra reflete o objetivo principal da série, que é contribuir com temas estratégicos na transmissão do conhecimento científico atualizado, ao acompanhar as transformações das ciências da saúde, e promover um atendimento intra-hospitalar humanizado, de qualidade e que possa ser divulgado para diferentes serviços e áreas de atuação.
