Un otoño romano (Spanish Edition) Javier Reverte

Javier Reverte nos permite adentrarnos en su diario de una de las ciudades más bellas del mundo: Roma.

En forma de diario, como hicieron Goethe o Stendhal y muchos otros escritores que han visitado y escrito sobre Roma, Javier Reverte nos ofrece en estas páginas su visión de «la ciudad de las ciudades». Con su estilo inimitable, mezclando pasión, cultura, historia, poesía, humor y ternura, el autor traza un retrato de la Ciudad Eterna que, sin duda, figurará a partir de ahora entre los grandes escritos sobre ella.

«Cierro los ojos: intento imaginar una noche festiva, con las hogueras ardiendo junto a los templos y los cantos que celebran a los dioses. O los días luminosos en que los emperadores regresan de las batallas triunfales y desfilan con sus legiones bajo los arcos, entre el clamor del pueblo. Antes del nacimiento de Nueva York, el ser humano no había emprendido una tarea urbana tan colosal y ambiciosa como fue la construcción de Roma.

Javier Reverte

La crítica ha dicho...

«[Su] lectura te convierte en privilegiado turista de la ciudad eterna.»
