Deadly Colors (Cedar Ridge Crime Series) (Volume 1) Benjamin Ryan T.

"It's easy to spot others that have had a tortured past if that's what you see in the mirror."

In Cedar Ridge, gang warfare has pumped drugs, money, blood and pain into the local economy.

Deadly Colors is a social commentary on the plight of the Urban-American male, disguising itself well as a police procedural.

Follow Detective Jeremiah Roland in his pursuit to keep a local gang war from getting out of control in the fictional California city of Cedar Ridge.

After arresting a notorious Blood member, Garrett Moore, Jeremiah does his best to prevent murders connected to Garrett's family and friends. His obsessive pursuit of the illusive drug lords complicates his life, putting himself and others at risk. Jeremiah's deep character flaws and checkered past cloud his judgment at times, forcing him into compromising situations. He must make hard decisions in order to keep his own life, and the lives of unexpected allies, out of harm's way.

Deadly Colors is a "thinking man's" crime drama with plenty of twists and turns along the way. Due to drug use, profanity, offensive language and violence, this novel is meant for adult readers who like fast-paced, gritty crime thrillers.

This book is for you, if you enjoy:
